

DECEMBER 1996/JANUARY 1997

APPELLATION

THE MAGAZINE OF WINE COUNTRY LIFESTYLES

JIMTOWN STORE'S QUIRKY COUNTRY STYLE

a French Laundry holiday menu • Burgundy's Drouhin dynasty

wine caves glorifying the darkness

US $3.95

CAN $4.95

9 771072 571019

Text by John Koopman Photography by Robert Olding

Jimtown

color in the country

store of an idealized American youth, where candy and gum and soda pop prevailed among boxes of soap and toys on the shelves.

The store is a single-story building with a prominent sign that reads "JIMTOWN STORE" and the address "6706". The entrance is decorated with garlands and string lights. A vintage car is parked in front of the store, and a small cart with a bicycle is in the foreground.

